Who edits and proofreads my paper?

I am a published author and a former editor/publisher with nearly forty years of experience in the communications industry. This is not my hobby! This is my profession. I personally edit and proofread your work.

What you include in your admissions essay can be the critical factor in determining which college you attend and how large a financial aid package you receive. Admissions officers will comb through your essay for information on your character, background, and writing ability, and will quickly reject anyone who does not meet their exacting standards.

Fortunately, you can control this aspect of your application and can ensure that the admissions officer gets the most positive impression possible.

We will suggest content improvements, correct grammatical and stylistic errors, and dramatically improve the power and language of your essay.

Order today to put our valuable service to work for you!

A strong college essay will capture the reader's interest from the first word. We focus your essay to make certain that the logic and organization flows naturally from the topic.

We help draw the reader into the narrative through vivid, compelling language and a strong voice. We ensure that your essay does not fizzle into a series of vague statements or succumb to the usual clichés.

We rework the introduction to engage the reader and provide a good first impression. We edit the conclusion to establish a sense of closure and balance in your essay.

We do not rewrite your essay so that it is unrecognizable as your own. Our editing process will strengthen your voice, not replace it.

Your essay must be flawless and on topic. We reword awkward sentences and correct for verbosity and rambling. Any words, phrases, sentences, or paragraphs that do not improve your essay are restructured or eliminated.

We correct errors in grammar, spelling mistakes, run-on sentences, sentence fragments, and correct word choice errors. You may ask clarifying questions by email once you receive your edit.

How Does Editing & Proofreading Change Your Writing?

Editing and proofreading have nothing to do with the content of your project.

After editing/proofreading your paper will have:

- no spelling or punctuation mistakes
- relevant vocabulary
- no repetitions, redundancies or ambiguities
- logical structure
- consistent style

Editing transforms your paper into a clear, accurate text
